THE MOST FAMOUS SPY

3.1. ___
James Bond, the secret agent invented by Ian Fleming, has become such an important symbol of the United Kingdom that he appeared at the opening ceremony of the 2012 London Olympics. It was in a film produced for this occasion. It was unusual that Queen Elizabeth II, who hadn’t acted in films before, agreed to do so in this film. Bond escorted her to the stadium.

3.2. ___
The career of the most famous spy in the world, James Bond, began in 1953 when Ian Fleming published his first novel, Casino Royale. He wrote twelve novels and two story collections with Bond as the main character between 1952 and 1964.

3.3. ___
Bond’s character was based mainly on Fleming’s brother who was a secret agent. Fleming took Bond’s good looks from a jazz singer Hoagy Carmichael and Bond’s name from the American ornithologist James Bond. This simple name sounded perfect for the character living a life full of extraordinary adventures.
